MARY WEAN'S MESSAGE

The Christmas season is upon us and it's one of my favorite times of year at the Lake Club. It's so fun to watch the staff come together as a group as they decorate the Club while listening to Christmas carols. A special thanks to Michelle, Jenny, Wren and the Lake Club Staff who went over and above to bring a new style to our holiday decor.

I am excited about the two upcoming events we have this month. The Commodore's Holiday Party is going to be wonderful this year, with the talented Jenny Thiel performing. She is always such a treat and I and many of our members look forward to hearing her perform. You can also celebrate an elegant New Year's Eve with a candlelight dinner at the Lake Club. Enjoy Cole's Special menu for the evening and live performance by Peter D'Amore. As always, I am looking forward to seeing you at the club.

Happy Holidays!

FROM OUR COMMODORE

One of the things that brings our members back to us time and time again is our dedication to providing them with memorable and engaging experiences. The Lake Club is decked out for your Holiday enjoyment and we hope you will make the Club part of your Holiday celebrations.

As I look back on November, I see the results of a staff that is committed to innovation and improvement of your experience at the Club. Wednesday Night Family Night is just one example: a different menu every Wednesday night served family-style for the entire family's casual dining enjoyment. There's also the added bonus that if the kids get a little restless, they can burn off some energy using the new ping-pong and foosball tables that were recently installed at Dockside. The Family Night dinners have been well-received by the members and will continue into December. The third annual Ladies Night Out was the largest of these events, requiring the use of two floors to accommodate new vendors. If you missed it, you missed a fun event. Thanks to all who work so hard to make this a successful event.

Please see our Facebook page to shop Ladies Night Out after the event.

The Club has planned several holiday events for the enjoyment of members, family and friends. These include:

- The Commodore's Holiday Cocktail Party, Friday, December 12 - featuring cocktails and hors d'oeuvres, followed by dinner from our usual Friday Night Dinner menu. Music will be provided by Jenny Thiel.
- The New Years Eve Candlelight Dinner, Wednesday, December 31 - featuring a special menu created by Chef Cole. Music will be provided by guitarist Peter D'Amore from 6 to 9 PM.

Please watch out for our weekly emails with details on how to make your reservation for these events.

The Club is, of course, also available to help with your special holiday family or business parties and celebrations. The staff is eager to help you make your holidays everything you want them to be. Just call Mary Wean at 262-567-4934.

Angela and I wish you a Merry Christmas, a joyous holiday season and a Happy New Year.

We look forward to seeing you at the Club over the festive season. Please invite your neighbors and friends to enjoy the Club with you over the holiday season.

SUE WHITE’S MESSAGE

One of the joys of the holidays is sharing traditions and memories together at the Lake Club. Many of our members host their Christmas parties here every year and it’s lovely to see them come back again and again. The Lake Club has a variety of different spaces to host your unique holiday celebration. January is the perfect time to celebrate your holiday party and show employee appreciation without all the hustle and bustle that December brings. Call today to discuss your holiday event!

FOOD & BEVERAGE: ANDREA FRICANO

I am so excited to spend my first holiday season here at the Lake Club. I love this beautiful country and discovering quaint places like Oconomowoc. It is a wonderful example of a small community where everybody knows everyone. It’s amazing to see how family-oriented everyone is and how they are looking forward to celebrating the holidays together. From great food and drinks to memories treasured, we want your Lake Club experiences to bring you back time and time again. Your feedback and ideas are always welcome - let’s work together to keep enhancing our club of choice!

CHEF’S CHAT WITH COLE: GUEST CHEF - KATHY BUDDA

Many of the shared traditions of the Lake Club during the festive months includes so many of the wonderful dishes and treats the kitchen churns out every holiday season. Some stories from Head Chef Cole Singer and Pastry Chef Kathy Budda, with their thoughts on making the holiday treats that we all know and love:

What are some of your own family traditions around the holidays?

Chef Kathy: My grandmother raised me and with a large extended family, she didn’t have a lot of money to buy gifts. Every year we’d start bake Christmas cookies from September until December to give as gifts for friends and family. This is truly the only time my grandmother would really open up and talk about her life as we baked the day away! This is a tradition that I’ve carried on with my children. Christmas cookies are such a huge part of the holiday season here at the Lake Club. I love making all the different orders for the club members - one of my favorite recipes is a Danish butter cookie that is just a joy to bake - and eat!

Chef Cole: Christmas dinner is the big thing with my family. At my house we make braised short ribs for dinner. It’s a tradition to use only country-style cut Amish short ribs with red wine and lots of rosemary. You get started early in the day and enjoy the smell of homemade ribs cooking all day long as you’re opening gifts and enjoying family time. Delicious aromas are such an important part of our Christmas memories, and I want that for my kids. It’s a warming feeling to have a house that just smells like the holidays. If you’d like to try this dish at home for your family get to get together, give the Lake Club a call and I will prepare it for you with pleasure. All you’ll have to do is enjoy!
