Club Update...

Lake Club Members,

Fall is a great time to slow down and enjoy quality time with your family and friends. Make a reservation for dinner at the club this weekend to enjoy Chef Nancy's menu. Look for weekly changes to the menu, there's always something new to try.

Mark your calendar for the upcoming Holiday wine fair on Saturday November 12th. Featured vendors will be LoDuca Bros., Johnson Brothers of Wisconsin, and Badger Liquor. This is a great opportunity to stock up on great wines for holiday gift giving and entertaining at a great savings.

Did you know there are a number of activities to enjoy at the club year round? The Lake Club hosts a Book Club, Ladies Bridge, Yoga, and Mah Jongg. Look for more information in this edition of the Docket. Your guests are welcome to join in. Contact the office if you would like to add a new activity to the club. Support your club by spreading the word; the Lake Club is available for business meetings, corporate functions, fundraising events, and private parties. Our expert staff is here to help you plan and execute the perfect event. It's also time to start planning for the upcoming holiday season. Contact Sue White to reserve a date at the club for your holiday party or catering needs. Choose from our holiday banquet menu or our culinary team would be happy to help you design a personal menu for your special event.

The pier will be coming out after October 15th. Remember to call the office to let us know when you need the boat launch open. The office is open Monday thru Friday from 8:30 to 4:00. To ensure that the OLC boat launch lake access is used for members only, please let us know if a service will be assisting you with your boats and pier. Anyone interested in renting a boat slip for the 2017 summer season should submit their request now for the lottery to mary@clubolc.com. The cut-off for requests will be February 1st, 2017.

See you at the Club!

Mary Wean
Chief Operating Officer

Please give a warm welcome to our newest members

Sip for Thought...

For this month's beverage editorial, I'd like to travel rather South to one of the nine Great Wine Capitals on this planet, Mendoza, Argentina. Located on the eastern side of the Andes, the greater region is noted as the largest wine producing area in Latin America. Appropriately enough, I'd like to feature a fantastic Malbec from this region, the 2012 vintage of Alma De Los Andes Malbec Reserva.

Alma De Los Andes Malbec Reserva (2012) is a stunning red from winemakers Pablo & Hector Durigutti. Sourced from estate vineyards in Lujan de Cuyo and the Uco Valley, these two sub-regions within Mendoza offer a perfect growing climate of warm days and cool nights. This phenomenon allows the grapes to achieve excellent fruit and tannin concentration, which is responsible for the wine's structure. Aged 12 months in new French oak, this rich red is loaded with jammy cassis and blueberry flavors, woven together with layers of floral and cedar notes.

WINEMAKER NOTES

Alma de los Andes was created by Guillermo Banfi in 2002, with the aim of producing premium Argentine wines and excellent values by focusing its production on two varietals: Malbec and Cabernet Sauvignon. His passion for wine collided with his business training, and at the start of the worldwide boom in Argentine wines, led him to make the decision to leave banking to pursue a dream of creating a high quality boutique winery. In 2005, Guillermo, hired two of Argentina's rising young stars, brother's Pablo & Hector Durigutti. The winery has a distinct, modern style as their reds are dominated by ripe, rich fruit, vivid color and great balance of tannins and acidity
