Sip for Thought...

Hello Members!

Friday June 10th, The Oconomowoc Lake Club welcomes The Tyranena Brewing Company and their respective Beer Ambassador, Mark Mahoney, for an evening of tasting and Beer Q & A. The legend of Tyranena (pronounced Tie*rah*nee*nah*), began long ago, in a time before history was written. Legend tells of a foreign tribe that built a series of stone structures and effigy mounds on the edge of a lake they called Tyranena.

Today, these structures lie preserved deep under the waters of Rock Lake. No one knows for sure who built them, the purposes they served, how and why they are now submerged, or even the meaning of the word Tyranena. We invite you to develop your own theories, while enjoying one of the new legends of Tyranena, the Legendary Wisconsin Beers of the Tyranena Brewing Company.

Mark will be pouring the following Tyranena Brewing Company Beers; Rocky's Revenge Brown Ale, Three Beaches Honey Blonde, Scurvy IPA, and Headless Man Amber.

Fun Facts about the Brewery!

Founded in November 16, 1998, Tyranena Brewing Company began operations on October 21, 1999.

Conveniently located 25 minutes from Madison and 50 minutes from Milwaukee in the small Wisconsin city of Lake Mills (combined population, township & city, of 7,778 in 2010).

The brewery uses a modern 6-vessel, 30-barrel Sprinkman Brewhouse with a production capacity of 45,000 barrels.

Current fermentation capacity (10 60-barrel Sprinkman/Walker cylindroconical fermenters) limits actual production.

Bottling: A long-tube SMB filler and bottling line fills 2 cases per minute

I strongly encourage everyone to partake in this wonderful tasting experience and I cannot think of a better beverage to compliment your Friday evening fish dinner, than a Tyranena Beer! Or, a bit of all 4 of Mark's offerings for the evening...
